1   Flynn's classification of parallel computers

- SISD: single instruction single data (single processor computers)
- SIMD: single instruction multiple data (2D tiroidal grid of processors); very poor performance for scientific computing, but good for image and signal processing
- MIMD: multiple instruction multiple data